GENERAL ELECTION 2024

Archbishop Dermot Farrell makes some very good points in a letter to the people of the diocese on voting in the upcoming election. It is available on the websites of the Dublin Archdiocese and the Irish Bishops <https://www.catholicbishops.ie/2024/11/20/archbishop-farrell-to-vote-is-an-exercise-in-hope-and-in-support-for-the-common-good/election>. We have the right to vote not like some other countries. We should use that right. We should pray for the candidates who are brave enough to put themselves forward for election.

We are now in a totally new constituency – Wicklow/Wexford. When I vote I try to go by the advice of the great Russian writer Alexander Solzhenitsyn who suffered greatly under the Communist regime and who wrote "The simple step of a courageous individual is not to take part in the lie. "One word of truth outweighs the world". I always try and vote for candidates who speak and live the truth.

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Sunday 24th November

Christ, King of the Universe. Christ did not seek earthly domination in his kingship, but rather the liberation of the weak and oppressed. The Christian community shares in the royal dignity of Christ by showing to the world that service which was Christ's.

Eucharistic Adoration St David's Church, Johnstown
Every Monday 11am to 6pm

Entrance Hymn

Hail Redeemer, King divine! Priest and Lamb, the throne is thine; King, whose reign shall never cease, Prince of everlasting peace.

Angels, saints and nations sing: "Praise be Jesus Christ our King; Lord of life, earth, sky and sea, King of love on Calvary!"

Eucharistic King, what love draws thee daily from above, clad in signs of bread and wine : feed us, lead us, keep us thine!

King, whose name creation thrills, rule our hearts, our minds, our wills; till in peace, each nation rings with thy praises, King of kings.

Recessional Hymn

Be Thou my Vision, O Lord of my heart; be all else but naught to me, save that Thou art; be Thou my best thought in the day and the night, both waking and sleeping, Thy presence my light.

Riches I heed not, nor man's empty praise, be Thou mine inheritance, now and always; be Thou and Thou only the first in my heart, O High King of heaven, my Treasure Thou art.

High King of heaven, Thou heaven's bright Sun, O grant me its joys, after vict'ry is won; Great Heart of my own heart, whatever befall, still be Thou my Vision, O Ruler of all.
